

Constitution and Bylaws

Catoctin Association

Central Atlantic Conference

The Constitution

I. Name

The name of this Association is the Catoctin Association of the Central Atlantic Conference of the United Church of Christ.

II. Membership

The membership of this Association shall be composed of the local churches in the geographical area constituting the Catoctin Association which are members of the United Church of Christ, as defined in the Constitution of the United Church of Christ as amended July 2001, (Article V, paragraphs 9-19) and the Bylaws of the Central Atlantic Conference (Article VIII, section 2b) as amended June 1999, and all ordained ministers who have standing in this Association.

III. Purposes

- A. To bring together in fellowship and counsel all the local churches in this Association for mutual concern, Christian witness, and Christian service.
- B. To carry on the work and exercise the functions of an Association of the United Church of Christ, as outlined in the Constitution and Bylaws.
- C. To determine, confer, and certify the standing of local churches of the United Church of Christ within its boundaries.
- D. To determine, confer, and certify the standing of ordained ministers of the United Church of Christ within its boundaries.
- E. To cooperate with the Central Atlantic Conference of the United Church of Christ and, through the Conference, with the General Synod of the United Church of Christ, its Collegiums, Ministries, agencies and recognized bodies.
- F. To receive and act upon the business referred to it by its local churches, its Conference, the General Synod, and other bodies.
- G. To be concerned with the welfare of all local churches within its boundaries to the extent of seeking ways and means to assist local churches in their ministries in situations calling for help beyond their own resources.

- H. To support conference activities in new church development.
- I. To maintain a relationship with the institutions recognized by the Conference or the United Church of Christ which are located within the bounds of the Association or those others which may have a special mission relationship with the Association.
- J. To receive and act upon applications of persons in discernment through their pastors and local churches and to supervise their preparation for these ministries in accordance with Article I, paragraphs 101-104 of the Bylaws of the United Church of Christ.
- K. To receive and act upon applications for Ordination made by persons in discernment through a local church of this Association in accordance with Article I, paragraphs 105-108 of the Bylaws of the United Church of Christ.
- L. To receive and act upon applications for licensed or commissioned ministry through a local church of the Association in accordance with Article I, paragraphs 144-154 of the Bylaws of the United Church of Christ.
- M. To issue upon the request of a pastor, moving from the bounds of this Association, a transfer of ministerial standing to another Association of the United Church of Christ.
- N. To be responsible for the discipline of ministers who hold standing in this Association. In the case of an allegation of pastoral misconduct requiring possible disciplinary action, the Church and Ministry Commission, in consultation with the Conference Ministry Team and the Association president, is authorized to take such action as is deemed appropriate on behalf of the Association. (Reference: “Oversight of Ministries Authorized by the United Church of Christ, Guidelines of Resourcing Committees on the Ministry.”)
- O. To receive and act upon applications for installation and to arrange for services of the installation, or recognition, of a minister in accordance with Article I, paragraphs 123-124 of the United Church of Christ Bylaws.
- P. To take appropriate action in the termination of a pastoral relationship with a local church in accordance with Article I, paragraph 125 of the Bylaws of the United Church of Christ.
- Q. To receive and act upon applications for Privilege of Call, Partner in Ministry, or Dual Standing by ordained ministers of another denomination in accordance with Article I, paragraphs 126-143 of the Bylaws of the United Church of Christ.

IV. Officers

The officers of this Association shall be President, Vice-President, Secretary, and Treasurer and other such officers as this Association may deem necessary.

V. Association Council

The Association Council of the Catoctin Association shall be composed of the following: The duly-elected President, Vice President, Secretary, and Treasurer of the Association, five (5) At Large members, a Conference Board of Directors member, Chair of Church and Ministry Commission, Chair of Association Services Commission, and a representative of the Central Atlantic Conference staff. The representative of the Conference Minister assigned to the Association shall be a nonvoting member of the Council.

VI. Finance

A. This Association shall be supported by the contributions of its member churches.

B. The fiscal year shall be the calendar year.

VII. Meetings

A. The Annual Meeting of this Association shall be held at such time and place as provided in the Bylaws. Special meetings may be called as provided in the Bylaws.

B. When this Association meets, its voting membership shall be composed of the ordained ministers holding standing in this Association, and of lay delegates selected by and representing the local churches of the Association as provided in the Bylaws.

C. A quorum at meetings of the Association shall be constituted as defined in the Bylaws.

VIII. Relation to Central Atlantic Conference

This Association shall be related to the Central Atlantic Conference of the United Church of Christ as provided for in the Constitution and Bylaws of the United Church of Christ.

The Bylaws

I. Membership

- A. Voting membership of the Association shall be composed of delegates of all local churches in this Association and the ordained ministers who have standing in this Association.
- B. Upon request, this Association, in its Annual Meeting, may admit as an “associate member” of this Association, a church which wishes to participate in its activities but does not wish to become a member of the United Church of Christ, as provided in the Constitution of the United Church of Christ (Article V, paragraph 16). The names and statistics of such churches shall be kept separately. Members of such churches may not be delegates to the Central Atlantic Conference or to the General Synod of the United Church of Christ. No direct or indirect participation by any such church in the work of the Association shall be construed as making it a part of the United Church of Christ.
- C. An ordained minister of another denomination who has been granted Privilege of Call in the Association shall be granted the rights and privileges of such membership, except that he/she shall have no vote on matters affecting the standing of ministers of local churches, nor shall he/she be elected an officer of the Association until he/she has received a call to a local church, receiving full standing in the United Church of Christ.
- D. An ordained minister of another denomination, called to serve as pastor of a church in this Association, may request dual standing, and at his/her request, be enrolled as a member of this Association for the duration of that pastorate, with all rights and privileges of such membership, except that he/she shall not be elected an officer of this Association.
- E. The United Church of Christ and the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) each recognize the ordained ministries of the other church and therefore all ordained partners have the full rights and privileges of members ordained in the UCC.
- F. Any person upon whom full ministerial standing is conferred through Rite of Ordination by this Association in cooperation with a local church shall be a member of this Association until standing is transferred to another Association, or until such standing is suspended or revoked according to due process.
- G. Any ordained minister who presents a letter of transfer from an Association of the United Church of Christ, or a Conference of that Church exercising the function of an Association, may be received as a member of this Association.

II. Member Churches

- A. A local church holding membership in this Association shall have the responsibilities and privileges as set forth in the Constitution of the United Church of Christ, Article V.
- B. A local church shall have a concern for the health, ministry and witness of all local churches in this Association.
- C. A local church shall be faithful in sending officially designated lay and clergy delegates to all meetings of the Association.
- D. A local church shall hold in highest regard all actions, decisions, and advice emanating from this Association.
- E. A local church shall submit such congregational information and reports as requested by this Association of the Central Atlantic Conference.
- F. A local church shall not be removed from the rolls of this Association except upon the recommendation of the Church and Ministry Commission and by a two-thirds vote of the voting membership at a duly called meeting of the Association, due notice of the proposed action having been given at least four (4) weeks in advance to all churches and ministers holding standing in this Association.

III. Member Ministers

- A. A minister holding ministerial standing and membership in this Association shall have the responsibilities and privileges as set forth in the Bylaws of the United Church of Christ, Article I.
- B. Ministers shall be faithful in attendance at all meetings of this Association and in participation in its work.
- C. Ministers shall hold church membership in a local church of the UCC. A pastor, must hold membership in one or more of the local churches that the pastor serves.
- D. If a minister desires to withdraw from the active service in the ministry before reaching the age of sixty-five (65) years, the minister shall apply to this Association through the Church and Ministry Commission for leave of absence. Such leave of absence may be granted by the Association for one (1) year at a time, and, except in special cases, shall not be granted for more than five (5) successive years. On recommendation of the Church and Ministry Commission a minister may be restored to membership and ministerial standing by a majority vote of the Association Council.

- E. A minister holding membership in this Association, who retires from the active ministry by reason of age or sickness, shall not forfeit ministerial standing in this Association.
- F. Any ordained minister who is in good and regular standing in this Association may receive a transfer to the ecclesiastical body of his/her choice upon written request to the Church and Ministry Commission provided that said request does not violate the Bylaws of the United Church of Christ.
- G. A minister can be removed from the ministerial rolls of this Association by vote of the Church and Ministry Commission acting on behalf of the Association. (See Guidelines for Resourcing Committees on the Ministry, Oversight of Ministries Authorized by the United Church of Christ.)
- H. A minister holding ministerial standing and membership in this Association may counsel with members of the United Church of Christ and others in his/her professional capacity. Any and all communications of any person with a member minister in his/her professional capacity, made in the course of a church-authorized discipline (i.e. a confession which is penitential in nature) shall be kept by the minister in the strictest confidence.

IV. Officers

- A. The President shall preside at all meetings of the Association and the Association Council. He/She shall perform all duties assigned by the Association Council.

The President or his/her designate shall act on behalf of the Association at Ordinations and Installations. The President shall be an ex-officio member of all Commissions. The President should also act as the coordinator of the activities of the Association, designating responsibilities, meeting dates, appointing committees and task forces as they are needed.
